2. Terms Of Transfer on Death

We authorize LPL Financial LLC (LPL), our broker, to add Transfer on Death (TOD) instructions to our account according to the terms and conditions set forth herein. This agreement supersedes all previous TOD agreements that may be on file for this account. This agreement does not supersede or in any way affect, and we agree that we continue to be bound by, any other agreements including but not limited to a Joint Tenant Agreement executed by us for our account.

- During our lifetimes, we shall retain full ownership as joint tenants with rights of survivorship of the securities held in our account. Either one of us may give instructions to purchase or sell securities, or transfer money, securities or other property for our account.
- Upon the death of one of us, the securities, money or other property in the account shall pass to an account held for the surviving joint tenant in his or her individual capacity, ("the Survivor Account"). Unless notified otherwise via the execution of a new TOD Account Agreement, the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries shall remain the same after the death of the first joint tenant. Upon receipt of notice as defined hereunder of the surviving joint tenant's death, LPL shall, without requiring any further instruction from any other person or entity, transfer all monies, securities and other property from the Account to separate new account(s) opened for the following person ("Beneficiary") or persons ("Beneficiaries") or, if permitted by applicable law, Contingent Beneficiary or Beneficiaries, pursuant to percentages noted below or if none indicated then in equal shares, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein. In keeping therewith, the terms Beneficiary and Beneficiaries shall include Contingent Beneficiary and Beneficiaries if applicable. I certify that the Beneficiary(s) are permitted beneficiaries under applicable TOD law.

Beneficiary Designation

If neither primary nor contingent is indicated, the individual or entity will be deemed to be a primary beneficiary. If more than one primary beneficiary is designated and no distribution percentages are indicated, or the percentages do not total 100%, the beneficiaries will be deemed to own equal shares of the unspecified percentages in the TOD. If more than one contingent beneficiary is designated and no distribution percentages are indicated, or the percentages do not total 100%, the beneficiaries will be deemed to own equal share of the unspecified percentages in the TOD. If this is a Guardian account, the account will automatically pass to the minor's estate. Once the minor has reached the age of majority for the state of residence, he or she may then designate a beneficiary(ies).

In the event that a designated beneficiary dies, you may select whether distributions will be made to other remaining beneficiaries or to your beneficiary's heirs.

- Pro Rata (Default Rule) -- Unless Per Stirpes is indicated below, the following Pro Rata rule will be in place at my death. If any primary beneficiary dies before me, his or her interest shall terminate completely, and the percentage share of any remaining primary beneficiary(ies) shall be increased equally. If no primary beneficiary(ies) survives me, the contingent beneficiary(ies) shall acquire the designated share of my assets. If no primary or contingent beneficiaries survive me, my spouse will be deemed my beneficiary. If there is no surviving spouse at the time of my death, my estate will be deemed my beneficiary.
- Per Stirpes -- If any primary beneficiary dies before me, my estate will need to identify the heirs who are to receive that primary beneficiary's share of my TOD assets. If no primary beneficiary with the per stirpes designation survives me, that beneficiary's share shall be paid to the living descendants of such beneficiary, subject to state law. The percentage share of the remaining primary beneficiaries will remain the same.

3. In the event that any of the Beneficiaries are minors in the relevant jurisdiction at the time of receipt of notice of the death of the surviving joint tenant and you are notified of such fact, the shares shall be transferred to a custodial account or other fiduciary or guardianship account for the benefit of the minor Beneficiary upon receipt of appropriate documentation.
4. LPL shall be considered to be on notice of any changes in Beneficiary, the death of the surviving joint tenant or other information regarding our account on the date on which it receives the required documentation sent by mail, facsimile or other acceptable means. In the case of the death of the surviving joint tenant, LPL must receive a copy of the death certificate and any other documentation required to complete the distribution of the proceeds of the Survivor Account.
5. During our lifetimes, the securities in our account and the Survivor Account are to be registered and held in the name of LPL Financial LLC or other street or nominee name. However, if necessary to facilitate delivery or transfer of the securities, LPL has the right at any time, and without further authorization, to register the securities held in our name as joint tenants and/or the Survivor Account in individual name, or otherwise, in accordance with transfer agent requirements, without the names of any of the Beneficiaries thereon. We understand that such right is necessary as not all issuers, states, transfer agents or financial institutions recognize Transfer on Death registration.
6. LPL generally will divide all securities and cash in my account proportionately among the designated beneficiaries based on the allocations indicated herein; provided that LPL will seek to maintain fixed income minimum denomination in lot sizes sufficient to meet any minimum trading requirements (per issuers' requirements). In the event that any securities remain after such proportionate division of assets and the market value of each such remaining security is less than or equal to $50.00, LPL will distribute such remaining shares/bonds to the first primary beneficiary listed herein. In the event that any securities remain after such proportionate division of assets and the market value of each such security is greater than $50.00, LPL will use reasonable efforts to liquidate such remaining shares/bonds and divide the proceeds proportionately among the beneficiaries based on the allocations indicated herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, LPL will use reasonable efforts to liquidate all remaining fixed income securities and divide the proceeds proportionately among the beneficiaries based on the allocations indicated herein.
7. If any Beneficiary hereunder is or becomes the spouse of either joint tenant, then the dissolution of that marriage shall have no effect on the designation of Beneficiary unless and until LPL receives notice to the contrary by receipt of a new TOD Agreement.
8. In the event that, upon the death of the surviving joint tenant, the Survivor Account reflects a debit balance, LPL may liquidate any securities, at its discretion, required to satisfy that debit prior to distribution of any money, securities or other property to the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries.
9. LPL shall have the right to require execution of further documents by any Beneficiary or the legal representative of any Beneficiary, including but not limited to a Margin Agreement, prior to any distribution of the monies, securities or other property in the Survivor Account.
10. We and our estates hereby agree to indemnify and hold LPL, its affiliates, directors, officers, agents and employees, and their heirs, executors administrators, successors and assigns, harmless from any liability to any person or entity including, but not limited to, the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries and/or our heirs, successors, spouse(s) and offspring for any actions taken in opening and maintaining our account, registering the securities or other property, or making the distributions upon receipt of notice of my death, or complying with any term of this Agreement.
11. LPL has no obligation to: locate Beneficiaries, question or investigate the circumstances of the death of either joint tenant as it is reported to them; determine the age or any other facts about a Beneficiary as per other applicable "Know Your Customer" rules; appoint, if applicable, a custodian or guardian for any minor Beneficiary; locate or notify any spouse(s) children or other heirs of the death of either joint tenant; verify the legality of any distribution under the probate, estate and TOD laws of any state where transfer takes place; or determine which state's law is applicable.
12. LPL reserves the right to liquidate any leveraged or collateralized securities positions before transfer of TOD Account Assets to a Beneficiary or Beneficiaries, and any margin or other indebtedness of the Account Holder must be satisfied prior to a transfer of TOD Account Assets unless otherwise agreed to by LPL. Collateralized accounts that have established a securities backed line of credit with a third party bank must satisfy all outstanding balances and obtain a letter of authorization from the securing party before LPL will transfer TOD Account Assets to a Beneficiary.
13. Arbitration Agreement: Any controversy between us, the beneficiaries hereunder or our successors, heirs, assigns, children, or spouse(s) and LPL shall be submitted to arbitration before FINRA. No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class action and who had not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (1) the class certification is denied; (2) the class is decertified; or (3) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this agreement except to the extent stated herein.

13. Arbitration of Disputes - Disclosures

This agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement the parties agree as follows:

- All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award.
- The Panel of Arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

This Agreement contains an Arbitration Agreement in paragraphs 12 and 13 hereof. I acknowledge receiving a copy of this agreement.
